VISITING the SPIRIT WORLD, PAST LIVES and REGRESSION With KELLY WEAVER

Join Psychic Medium and author Kelly Weaver for a fascinating journey to the "other side"! What happens when we die? How do our loved ones communicate with us from heaven? She'll give accounts from her years of experience as a medium communicating with those who have made their transition. Our physical bodies are only temporary housing for the essence of who we are. Death can take our bodies sooner or later, but it can never destroy us - we have everlasting lives!

PAST LIVES: AN INTRODUCTION Why do you like the things you do, are drawn to certain places, fear the things that you fear? It could be in your memory from a past life!

Kelly will guide the audience on a past life regression. Bring a notebook to record your findings. You'll be amazed at what comes through!

Kelly Weaver is the author of Whispers in the Attic - Living with the Dead, the story of her lifetime of experiences as a medium and investigator of haunted places. She writes for several publications and is the founder of the SSP. (www.spiritsocietyofpa.com) Kelly's website is www.kellysmagicalgarden.com
